Making up: Pink and Carey Hart plan a novel Aussie tour.

Bikes to roar on Pink tour

SYDNEY: Pink's husband Carey Hart will hold a series of free motocross events around her upcoming Funhouse tour, as the couple rebuild their relationship in Australia.

Based on his tattoo shop and clothing brand, the Hart and Huntington Freestyle Tour will be a celebration of motocross and the associated art, fashion, music, bikes, cars and culture.

The three-hour events will be held ahead of selected shows on Pink's 42-date Australian tour, in Melbourne, Newcastle, Sydney, Brisbane, Gold Coast.

Hart, a freestyle motocross star, came up with the idea of putting on and starring in the free shows as a way to give something back to Australian fans.
