Hart's still with Pink

Motocross champ Carey Hart is becoming more famous for being pop star Pink's husband.

And the 33-year-old, who is in a free motocross event at Rod Laver Arena on Saturday, was finding it hard again to dodge Pink questions at a practice session at Melbourne Showgrounds this morning.

Hart denied reports that he and Pink had renewed marriage vows and said they had no plans to do so.

"I think the important thing is we are together," he said.

The motocross star also said songs on Pink's recent album about their marriage break-up were "light-hearted fun".

The Hart and Huntington Freestyle Tour, which incorporates motocross, tattoo art and fashion, is on at Rod Laver Arena between 2pm and 5pm.
